RULES

CHAPTER XI

Licensing of agents engaged in business of collecting, forwarding and distributing goods, carried by public carriers.

1. Definitions.—In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:—

(1) 'agent' means any person who engages directly or indirectly in the business of—

(a) collecting;

(b) forwarding and distributing;

(c) collecting, forwarding and distributing, goods carried by any public carriers.

(2) 'agent's licence' means a licence granted under rule 3.

(3) 'collecting agent' means a person licensed to do the business of collecting goods carried by any public carrier;

(4) 'collecting and forwarding agent' means a person licensed to do the business of collecting, forwarding and distributing goods carried by any public carrier;

(5) 'forwarding agent' means a person licensed to do the business of forwarding and distributing goods carried by any public carrier;

(6) 'form' means a form appended to these rules: and

(7) 'licensing authority' means the licensing authority as has been or may be specified by the State Government under Rule 2.1 (under chapter II) of the Punjab Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940, for the purposes of these rules.

2. Licensing of agents.—No person shall act as an agent unless he holds a valid licence in Form III granted by the licensing authority authorising the carrying on of such business.

3. Application.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a licence for carrying on any business referred to in clause (1) of rule 1 or for renewing such licence may make an application to the licensing authority in Form I or Form II, as the case may be.

(2) The application shall be accompanied by a fee of Rupees one hundred.

(3) On receipt of an application, the licensing authority shall, having regard, among other things, to the following matters, namely:—

(a) the number of goods vehicles either owned by the applicant or under his control;

(b) the suitability of accommodation possessed by the applicant for the storage of goods;

(c) the facilities, if any, provided by the applicant for parking the goods vehicles; and

(d) the financial resources of the applicant and his ability to manage the business efficiently; either grant or renew or refuse to grant or renew the licence.

(4) The licensing authority shall intimate the State Transport Authority about the licences issued or renewed by the former.

4. Security for compliance with conditions.—Where it appears necessary so to do for ensuring proper compliance with the conditions referred to in rule 7, the licensing authority may, at the time of granting or renewing a licence or at any time during the validity of a licence, order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, the licensee to furnish a reasonable security on such scale as may be notified by the State Government in the Official Gazette, and where the licensee has furnished earlier any security in pursuance of an order passed under the provisions of this rule, such additional security as may be reasonable.

5. Forwarding and collecting agents.—(1) An agent's licence shall, where the holder thereof is licensed to act only as a forwarding agent or as a collecting agent, specify that fact clearly.

(2) An agent's licence shall be non-transferable.

(3) No agent's licence shall authorise a person to act as such agent unless he has adequate facilities to load and unload goods at the premises approved by the licensing authority under these rules.

6. Period of validity and renewal.—(1) An agent's licence shall be valid for a period of five years from the date of its grant or renewal.

(2) It may be renewed on an application made to the licensing authority not less than thirty days before the date of its expiry.

(3) The renewal of licence shall be by endorsement of the renewal thereof by the licensing authority on the original licence.

7. Conditions for agent's licences.—An agent's licence shall be subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (a) that the licensee shall, subject to the provisions of rule 10, provide places for loading and unloading of goods;
- (b) that the licensee shall be responsible for proper arrangements for storage of goods collected for despatch and delivery;
- (c) that where he is authorised to forward and distribute goods, the licensee:—
 - (i) shall be responsible for proper delivery of goods to the consignee;
 - (ii) shall be liable to indemnify the consignee for any loss or damage to goods while in his control or possession;
 - (iii) shall not issue a goods transport receipt without having actually received the goods;
 - (iv) shall not deliver the goods to the consignee without actually receiving from the consignee a goods transport receipt or, if the receipt is lost or misplaced, an indemnity bond covering the value of goods;
- (d) that the licensee shall ensure the goods against any loss or damage while in his control or possession;
- (e) that the licensee shall maintain a proper record of the vehicles under his control and of the collection, despatch and delivery of goods which shall be open to inspection by the licensing authority or by any person duly authorised in this behalf by such authority and shall furnish to licensing authority as also to State Transport Authority by 31st March every year a return in respect of the previous calendar year in Form IV;
- (f) that the licensee shall not charge any commission exceeding that prescribed by the Licensing Authority under rule 9;
- (g) that the licensee shall furnish the operators with correct figures of the freight receivable by them from the consignors or the consignees;
- (h) that the licensee shall maintain proper accounts of the commission charged by him and have the same audited by qualified auditors annually;
- (i) that the licensee shall ensure that the goods vehicles under his control have valid permits for routes on which the vehicles have to ply;
- (j) that the licensee shall maintain in good condition a weighing device capable of weighing at a time not less than 226 kg. (500 lbs.);
- (k) that the licensee shall attend to his customers in order in which they approach him;

Provided that customers in respect of such perishable goods as may be notified by the State Government in the Official Gazette shall be given priority over other customers and shall be attended to in the order in which they approach the licensee;

- (l) that the licensee shall assign the available traffic

amongst the operators in the order in which they have approached him and shall maintain a register chronologically recording particulars of the available traffic and the waiting operators;

- (m) that the licensee shall comply with the provisions of these rules and shall observe such other conditions as the licensing authority may specify in the licence.
- (n) that the licensing authority may, at his discretion, order forfeiture, in whole or part, of the security or the additional security furnished by the licensee under rule 4 for contravention of any of these rules or for breach of any of the aforesaid condition by the licensee;
- (o) that the licensing authority may after giving notice of not less than one month in writing either vary the conditions of the licence or attach to the licence further conditions.

8. Particulars to be mentioned in contract of agency.—

All contracts entered into by the licensee for the purpose of collecting, forwarding and distributing goods, or collecting goods, or forwarding and distributing goods, the case may be, shall be in writing and shall contain the following particulars:—

- (i) names and addresses of the consignor and the consignee;
- (ii) description and weight of the consignment;
- (iii) destination and its distance in kilometres from the starting station;
- (iv) freight for tonne/km. and for the whole consignment;
- (v) delivery instructions (e.g. the date by which and the exact place where the goods are to be delivered to the consignee);
- (vi) terms of payment agreement;
- (vii) name of the owner, driver, the registration number of the vehicle and its authorised load and the rate and amount of the commission.

9. Rate of Commission.—The State Government may by notification in the official Gazette, prescribe the maximum rates at which a commission may be charged by licensees under these rules and the licensing authority may prescribe such rates of commission not exceeding the rates prescribed by the State Government in regard to licensees transacting business in Himachal Pradesh.

10. Premises to be used.—(1) The licensing authority may, in consultation with the local authority or the police authority having jurisdiction over the area concerned, approve any premises owned by or in the possession of a licensee or an applicant for an agent's licence to be used for loading or unloading of goods or for parking goods vehicles or for the storage of goods in the custody of the agent, having regard to the suitability of the site, sanitary conditions and storage facilities provided at such premises.

(2) Any approval under sub-rule (1) shall be subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (i) that the premises shall at all times be kept in a clean condition and good state of repairs;
- (ii) that the premises shall be administered in a seemly and orderly manner;
- (iii) that the licensee shall take all possible precautions to ensure that no breach of any of the provisions of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 (4 of 1939) or of these rules is committed in respect of any vehicle entering or leaving or parking at such premises and shall report in writing any such breach to the nearest police station.

(3) Where the Licensing Authority refuses to approve any premises under sub-rule (1), it shall record in writing its reasons for such refusal.

11. Suspension cancellation of licences.—(1) Without prejudice to any action which may be taken against a licensee, the licensing authority may, by order in writing, cancel the agent's licence or suspend it for such period as it thinks fit, if in its opinion any of the conditions under which the licence has been granted has been contravened.

(2) The Licensing Authority may by order in writing cancel the agent's licence or suspend it for such period as it thinks fit, if in its opinion any of the conditions under which any premises have been approved under rule 10, has been contravened.

(3) Before making any order of suspension or cancellation under this rule, the licensing authority shall give the licensee an opportunity of being heard and shall record reasons in writing for such cancellation or suspension.

12. Issue of duplicate licence.—If at any time an agent's licence is lost, destroyed or torn or otherwise defaced so as to be illegible, the agent shall forthwith apply to the licensing authority for the grant of a duplicate licence. The application shall be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 10. Upon receipt of such an application that authority shall issue a duplicate agent's licence clearly stamped 'Duplicate'. If a duplicate agent's licence is granted on a representation that the licence originally granted has been lost or destroyed and the original licence is subsequently found, the original licence shall be surrendered to the licensing authority.

13. Display of agent's licence.—(1) A collecting agent shall carry with him his agent's licence while on duty and shall produce it on demand to the licensing authority or to any inspecting officer of the Transport Department or any police officer in uniform not below the rank of a head constable.

(2) A forwarding agent shall exhibit his agent's licence at a prominent place in the premises approved under rule 10 and the licence shall be made available for inspection by the licensing authority or any inspecting officer of the Transport Department or any police officer in uniform not below the rank of a head constable.

(3) A collecting and forwarding agent shall carry with him his agent's licence while on duty and shall produce it on demand to the licensing authority or to any inspecting officer of the Transport Department or any police officer in uniform not below the rank of a head constable, and shall also cause a true copy of his agent's licence to be exhibited at a prominent place in the premises approved under rule 10.

14. Appeals.—(1) Any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-rule (3) of rule 3, rule 4, clauses (m) (n) or (o) of rule 7, rule 9, sub rule (1) of rule 10, sub-rule (1) or sub rule (2) of rule 11, rule 12 or rule 15 may appeal to—

(i) the District Magistrate concerned where order is made by the Licensing Authority;

(ii) the Secretary to the Government in the Transport Department where order is made by the District Magistrate;

within thirty days from the date of the receipt of such or

(2) The memorandum of appeal shall be filed in duplicate setting forth concisely the grounds of objection and shall be accompanied by a certified copy of that order:

Provided that a memorandum of appeal shall not relate to more than one order or be signed by more than one party.

15. Levy of fees for supply of copies.—The Authority which passed an order to be appealed against shall on an application by a party give a certified copy of the order or of any other relevant document on payment of a fee of Rs. 2/-, such payment being made by means of Court fee stamps affixed to the application for each such copy of the order or document.

16. Repeal and Savings.—Rule 4.72 of the Punjab Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940 as in force in Himachal Pradesh is hereby repealed:

Provided that anything done or any action taken under the said rule shall be deemed to be done or taken under these rules.
